11. Site of The World Championships

Hwaseong City, Korea

Hwaseong City is located on the southwest coast of Gyeonggi Province, the Midwest region of the Korean Peninsula, and it borders with 7 cities on land, It borders by sea with the Port of Pyungtaek on the West Sea.

Climate of Hwaseong City

Located in the Midwest area of the Korean Peninsula, the city is in a transitional area from warm southern areas to continental northern areas and displays a characteristic of a weather where the temperatures in winter are low along the coast since it is located in the lower plains and close to the inland West Sea where the water level is shallow.

Therefore, it falls under a type known as the mid-west coast type in the Korean local climate since it is located in a transitional area where the climate changes from mild and humid to cold
